

Rumble in the Rubble is a Christchurch City open-air boxing fight night event held in Cathedral Square on Friday 17th April.

Contenders are from 16 different companies, who are all contributing to the Christchurch rebuild. On fight night they will be coming straight off of the construction site, trading their hammers for gloves and putting their bodies on the line for Rumble in the Rubble!

Cathedral Square will be setup for the night, with scaffolding, scissorlifts, and a raw street level atmosphere.

This is going to be a great action packed night so don't miss out!
